Guest Speakers: Jo & Jerry Leonard

Members since 1972, their first love has always been ECKANKAR. They served in numerous ECK leadership positions in their local areas before accepting employment at the ECKANKAR International Office in Menlo Park, California where Jerry served as the President of ECKANKAR, and Jo served as Seminar Director. They helped re-locate the ECKANKAR Spiritual Center, with Jerry playing a lead role, to Minneapolis, MN in 1986. Following the successful re-location, they accepted employment in Virginia.

Jo and Jerry continue to present ECK talks and workshops in many countries around the world. In addition, Jo has been studying the art of fiction writing and currently has her first book published and another making the circuit of agents. Jerry continues to study computer arts and design. They currently make their home, along with a Siamese cat, in historic Occoquan, Virginia.

Youth Program

Eckankar seminars are special opportunities for young people to share their love of life and God. Beginning on Saturday at 1:15 pm and running concurrent with our main program through Sunday morning, there will be a unique seminar program for youth ages 5 through 12. It will include the arts, combined with group discussions to inspire spiritually stimulating and enriching experiences for our youth attendees.

Creative Arts

Throughout the seminar you will have the opportunity to be inspired by the creative expression of divine Light and Sound through music, art and writing. We invite you to enjoy live musical performances in our Main Program, view spiritually inspired art in the Art Gallery, and browse the many materials in our Book Room.
